AN NEW WATER HEAD

J. H. MARTIN SUCCEEDS L. A. DENNY DECEMBER 1.

FOLLOWS LONG FIGHT

"Public Prejudice" Against Municipal Superintendent Reason for Change, Says Official—Would Not Resign.

J. H. Martin of Kansas City, will succeed Louis A. Denny as superintendent of the municipal water works plant December 1, as a result of action taken at a special meeting of the board of public works in the office of the First National Bank this morning. The action follows ill feeling or prejudice which part of the public has maintained against the present head some time, it is said.

Mr. Martin has been an expert machinist with the Merkle-Hines Machinery Company of Kansas City for the last seven years. It was he who supervised the installation of the new pumps and boilers at the water plant when the city took charge of it in January 1913.

"In placing Mr. Martin at the head of the plant, we felt that it would remove any prejudice the public and especially the water works patrons may entertain towards the city or Mr. Denny personally," said M. E. Ford, vice president of the board of public works, this morning. "By placing a stranger in charge, with a clean slate to begin with, it is hoped the friction that has resulted in the past, may be removed, at least in part."

Mr. Denny has been superintendent of the plant during the entire time it has been operated municipally, and also for the last year that the Maryville Water Works, a private corporation, operated it. The fact that the water power was shut off at a time during dry weather was one reason for the prejudice that sprang up against Denny, according to Mr. Ford. Since then, however, a system of sand points have been installed which, it is believed, will guarantee a water supply at all times.

No plans for the future have been made yet by Mr. Denny. "I have had several good positions offered me within the last few months, but on account of the position the plant was in at that time I did not feel that it was right for me to resign," said Superintendent Denny this morning.

While no definite acceptance has yet been made by Mr. Martin, it is felt certain he will take the position. The office pays $100 a month now.

No other changes in the operation of the water plant have been made yet. Only two other men are regularly employed at the plant. They are under the direction of the superintendent, according to Mr. Ford. The next regular meeting of the public works board will be held next Thursday. Whether anything will be done at that time is not known.

Besides Superintendent Denny at the plant, there are Bert Hillsbeck, chief engineer, and George Harmon, night engineer. Extra men are employed when occasion demands.

The Maryville water plant was established in 1886. C. P. Denny, the father of the present superintendent, became manager. He remained in charge until his death, when his son, Charles P. Denny, Jr., became manager. In 1906 he was succeeded by William H. Jones. Two years later J. C. Donnell became superintendent. A year later G. B. Roseberry took charge and continued for three years, or until the present superintendent's entrance in 1912. Lou Denny had been connected with the plant, however, in other capacities previously.

Since the city has taken over the plant a new water tower was installed in the north part of the city, a filtering station established and the new pumps and boilers installed. With the completion of the sandpoint system and other minor improvements the plant now is considered to be in better condition than at any time since the city took it over.

The board of public works which supervises the operation of the water system is composed of E. L. Townsend, president; M. E. Ford, vice president; S. G. Gillam, secretary, and R. L. McDougal.

ADVICE TO VOTERS

The polls at every voting precinct in Nodaway county next Tuesday will be open from 7 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock that night.

When you present yourself at your respective voting place you will be given one large sheet containing the text of each of the fifteen proposed amendments with a large "no" and a "yes" adjoining each amendment. If you favor an amendment scratch the "no." If you oppose, mark out the "yes." Return to election judges.

You will also be given six "ribbon" party tickets, representing the Democrat, Republican, Progressive, Prohibition, Socialist and Socialist-Labor political parties. All voting must be done under one party head. If you desire to vote for a candidate on some other party ticket, scratch out the name of the candidate for that particular office on your party ticket and write in the name of the preferred candidate. You mark but one ticket. Return the remaining five to the judges for discard.

You will also receive two small slips, one of which will be marked "For township organization," and on the other, "Against township organization." If you favor township organization as at present, return the slip marked "For township organization" to the election judge to be placed in the ballot box. If you are against it, return the other to the ballot box. The rejected slip is to be returned, but for discard only.

GET FARMORATORS

NORMAL ARRANGES FOR SHORT AGRICULTURAL COURSE.

TO BE DECEMBER 8-12

Experts in Rural Husbandry from Several States Will Lecture at Agricultural Conference Here.

Lecturers for the five days agricultural conference which will be held in the Northwest Normal, December 8 to 12 inclusive, have been selected in part by the management of the state school. These experts in agriculture will come from many states, all of them being considered some of the ablest men in their chosen lines in the country.

It is believed a large number of young men and older men also will attend this five days farm course. A small charge will be made to defray the expenses, but not so much but what it is believed one interested can take advantage of it. It will be the first short course along this line to be held by the Normal independently. The University of Missouri has assisted in previous ones.

It is planned to give instructions not only in the general farm work, but also scientific lectures and demonstrations in corn and stock judging, animal husbandry, veterinary practice, poultry rearing and general farm management.

The lectures on farm topics already placed on the program are: Joseph Wing of Mechanicsburg, O., the famous alfalfa expert; Prof. F. B. Mumford, dean of the state college of agriculture of Columbia and director of the agricultural experiment station; D. F. Luckey of Columbia, state veterinarian, and T. R. Douglass of the extension department of the Iowa Agricultural college at Ames, Ia.

Others who in all probability will be on the lecture course are T. E. Quisenberry, director of the Missouri state poultry experiment station at Mountain Grove; C. T. Lindsay of Clinton, secretary of the Missouri Federation of Commercial Clubs, and E. G. Bennett of Columbia, of the state dairy commission.

Several other agricultural and stock experts of Iowa, Kansas and Missouri also are expected to be present at the five days farm course. Several local agricultural and live stock men of Nodaway county and northwest Missouri also will be engaged to lecture the short course students.

Nodaway County Will Be Covered by Temperance Workers at Close of "County Unit" Campaign.

The closing temperance rallies of the "county unit" campaign which has been conducted over Nodaway county by the Anti-Saloon League and ministers for the last week will be held in the various churches and school houses tomorrow. Nearly every district in the county will be represented by one or more meetings, according to present plans of the "dry" workers. Every minister has been enlisted in the campaign for the "county unit" law. Some will speak twice tomorrow.

While tomorrow will end the speaking campaign, the members of the Anti-Saloon League and the Women's Christian Temperance Union plan to spend a hard day at the four polling places of Maryville on election day, next Tuesday. A number of automobiles will be pressed into service by the Anti-Saloon League and "dry" workers generally for conveying favorable voters to the polls, while the W. C. T. U. expects to furnish at least twelve motor cars, driven by women, for the use of voters.

The first step of the W. C. T. U. toward enlisting actively in the "county unit" campaign was taken at a special meeting of the organization in the First Christian church yesterday afternoon. The Rev. L. M. Hale, the Rev. R. L. Finch and the Rev. G. S. Cox, representing the churches of which they are pastors, also were present.

It was decided to have two members of the union at each of the four voting places all the time the polls are open next Tuesday to hand out cards asking the voters to vote for the "county unit" amendment, No. 10. They probably will read: "Vote for Amendment No. 10 in the Interest of Home and Country." One canvasser will be stationed at each side of the polling places so that not a voter will be missed.

A list of every qualified voter in Maryville also has been obtained by the "dry" workers for the use of those stationed at the polls. In this way it will be possible to determine whether each voter is entitled to the suffrage.

One of the most extensive temperance meetings planned for tomorrow will be at the First Methodist church tomorrow morning, beginning with the Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock. The real temperance program will not begin, however, until a half-hour later.

It will be in observance of the "world's temperance Sunday," which is scheduled to be celebrated throughout the country by all Protestant churches, on the second Sunday in November. On account of the "county unit" campaign, which is being conducted over this county previous to election, it was decided to observe the day one week earlier.

There will be a chorus of between twenty-five and thirty voices, and the regular Sunday school services will be combined with the morning church program. There will be no intermission between the two. After the opening chorus and responsive readings, an address on "The Methodist Church and the War on Alcohol" will be delivered by H. C. Bower, Sunday school superintendent.

Others who will participate in the program are Prof. Harry H. Miller with a temperance reading; address, "The Effect of Alcohol on the Student Mind," by Prof. M. G. Neale; duet by Miss Leeta Wray and Miss Lasky Wray; address, "Chemical Properties of Alcohol (experiment)," by Prof. M. W. Wilson; sermon by pastor, the Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, "The Great Mockery."

A button will be given tomorrow by the temperance society of the church to each signer of the temperance pledge.

Other churches of Maryville and towns throughout the county will dwell upon the effects and evils of liquor in their Sunday sermons. The Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church has chosen as his Sunday night's topic, "Why the Saloon Must Go." The Rev. R. L. Finch of the First Christian church will preach on "The Maryville Sin."

BAPTISTS PLAN REVIVAL.

Evangelist A. E. Burch Will Begin Month's Series January 3.

A series of revival meetings, with Evangelist A. E. Burch of Kansas City in charge, will begin in the First Baptist church, January 3, 1915. The Rev. Lewis M. Hale, pastor, will assist him. The meetings probably will continue throughout the month, according to Mr. Hale. It will be the first revival in Maryville of the winter, so far as is planned.

"I consider Evangelist Burch one of the strongest and most forcible evangelical workers in Missouri today," said Mr. Hale this morning. "While he is yet a young man, he has had an excellent training in his chosen line, and everywhere closes successful revivals."

Mr. Burch is a Missourian. He was an evangelist for years in this state, then accepted a Baptist pastorate at Modesta, Cal. He recently re-entered the evangelistic field.

The Rev. G. L. Hale of Hannibal, a brother to the Maryville pastor, conducted the last Baptist revival here. One hundred and eight members were added as a result.

"Back to prosperity" with our Republican friends means "back to the offices."

Congressman Hulings of Pennsylvania, a Progressive, said a few days ago, "It lies not in the mouth of the Republican party to charge the Democratic party with extravagance." Under Republican rule the appropriations for the support of the government in 1898 were $485,000,000, while in 1909 they had grown to $986,000,000, or an increase of more than 100 per cent in eleven years. During their last six years of power the Republicans increased the expenditures for the support of the government on an average of $210,000,000 a year.

THE FACTS IN THE CASE.

Our Republican friends, in their desperation for campaign material, seem to have staked their all on two or three propositions. They claim first that a Democratic administration must bring hard times whether it does or not. They claimed that a revision of the tariff would destroy the prices of farm products and bring disaster to all producing classes. With the present high prices of all products of the farm, this claim is so absurd that it needs no answer. The only hard times visible to the naked eye are the hard times the Republicans are having to find any excuse for asking the people to put them back into power.

They claim, too, that the Democratic tariff law and income tax law fail to produce sufficient revenue, and therefore the war tax was made necessary, and it was not on account of the war in Europe. The total customs revenue and ordinary receipts for the fiscal year 1913 were $724,111,229.84. The total customs revenue and ordinary receipts for the fiscal year 1914 were $734,343,700.20, a gain of more than $10,000,000.00 in 1914. The revenues for the month of August last were $73,224,173.55 as against $60,231,524.12 for the same month last year. So it is easy to see that these laws were more than realizing what was expected of them. When the war came on and stopped imports almost entirely and swept commerce carrying ships off the seas, of course the revenues for September were greatly reduced. Had we retained the Payne-Aldrich tariff law without the income tax law they would have been still less. It makes no difference what the rate of duty is if there are no goods coming from foreign manufacturers to collect duties on.

Lastly, they claim that it was not the fault of the new tariff law, nor the war, but was made necessary because of Democratic extravagance in appropriations. The Republican nominee for congress, for instance, has been guessing. He says Democratic appropriations for the current year exceed the appropriations of the preceding congress by $170,000,000. The only trouble with his guess is that he got one too many ciphers, and, of course, goes wrong by $153,000,000. Perhaps that is near enough for a Republican campaign orator this year.

As a matter of fact the appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914 were $1,098,000,000 while the appropriations for the current fiscal year are $1,115,000,000, a difference of seventeen million and not one hundred and seventy millions.

But you say, "why even seventeen millions more?" Here is why. The development of the parcels post system increased the appropriations for the Post Office Department $28,000,000, which will of course come back to the government. The Mexican war called for army, navy and other unusual appropriations of $20,000,000. The European War made necessary emergency appropriations of $8,000,000 and $2,000,000 more than last year was appropriated for the Panama Canal. Here is a total of $58,000,000 of unusual and unavoidable appropriations made necessary by circumstances. Deducting this from the total leaves the regular appropriations for the year more than forty millions less than last year.

Dan Baker only wants to be recorder one term.

Jesse Robertson will be satisfied with eight years as probate judge.

Vote for Howard A. Gass and James Blair on the state ticket.

Champ Clark endorses Booher's work in congress and asks you to return him.

It looks like the only way Republicans can get a change in some of the county officers is to elect Democrats.

Did you ever see a better ticket, man for man, than the Democratic county ticket. They are clean, capable and courteous and will be satisfied with reasonable terms.

President Wilson asks for the return of Stone and Congressman Booher to the senate and house of representatives. If you believe in him, believe also in them, and vote as you believe.

The St. Joseph Observer says that young M. E. Otis, the Republican candidate for congress, voted for Roosevelt at the last election. Straight Republicans, we presume, will enthusiastically endorse his presidential proclivities.

"LAY" FOR HALLOWE'ENERS.

Mischievous Young Must Use Care, is Word From on High.

If any gates are torn from their resting place; if any vehicles are removed as with disgain from their regular habitat; if tick-tacks are placed on residences and sidewalks and streets are barred to traffic at any point in Maryville tonight, it must be done with care and caution. Even though it is Hallowe'en, when mischief is supposed to run rampant and without halter or bridle, the city protection staff, which consists of W. A. Burris, proposes to cover the city in good form.

For this and those reasons, many of the more venturesome young propose to move out upon the near-by farmers tonight. There, too, warm receptions await them, according to advices received this morning. The leash will be removed from the dogs and various firearms gotten in readiness for the Hallowe'en invaders tonight, it is said.

The less venturesome will resort to parties and social frolics tonight.

Give 'Em All Time to Get Ready.

"America is wholly unprepared for war," Congress is told. Why not amend the rules, suggests the K. C. Star, so that no nation can declare war against another without first calling the old formula:

"Bushel o' wheat and bushel o' rye, All that ain't ready holler 'I'."

THE AMENDMENTS

WHAT THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES MEAN.

SOME IMPORTANT BILLS

Woman's Suffrage, County Unit and Road Issues Are Big Propositions—Pass on Majority Vote.

Fifteen amendments to the state constitution will be submitted to the voters at the election next Tuesday. A bare majority will carry any amendment. The propositions are varied, and have their respective supporters as well as opponents.

Eleven are initial amendments to the state constitution while four, Nos. 9, 10, 11 and 12, were referred to the voters after passage by the legislature.

To vote for an amendment, scratch the "No" on the margin of the ballot. To vote against the measures, scratch the "Yes."

The amendments, in the order they will appear on the ballots, are:

Amendment one—Provides that no proposition submitted by the initiative or referendum and defeated, can be resubmitted again within five years. Its intention is to prohibit the use of the initiative to resubmit the single tax proposition, and practically prohibits any change in the present tax system. The amendment forever prohibits its own repeal.

Amendment two—Gives Kansas City power to issue bonds for acquiring public utilities, the bonds to be issued against the utility properties.

Amendment three—For levying a tax of 10 cents on the $100 valuation for the construction and maintenance of public roads.

Amendment four—Applies to the compensation of members of the general assembly. It authorizes an annual salary of $1,000 instead of $5 a day for the seventy days session.

Amendment five—Gives cities of 100,000 or more inhabitants power to authorize an increase in taxation to build or acquire subways.

Amendment six—Empowers voters of road districts to increase taxation for road improvements. The taxation is not to exceed 65 cents on the $100 valuation.

Amendment seven—Gives the legislature authority to grant pensions to the deserving blind.

Amendment eight—Authorizes cities with populations of more than 100,000 to adopt single methods of amending their charters. This amendment does not apply to St. Louis.

Proposition nine—Requires railroads to increase the crews on passenger, mail, express and freight trains. It is known as the full crew law, and was passed by the last legislature and resubmitted to the people by the referendum petition.

Proposition ten—Applies to local option, making the county the unit in such elections. Passed by the last legislature, and submitted by referendum petition.

Proposition eleven—Home rule for St. Louis. Provides for the appointment of excise commissioners by the mayor instead of the governor. Passed by the last legislature and submitted by referendum petition.

Proposition twelve—Gives the mayor of St. Louis power to appoint police commissioners. The commissioners now are named by the governor. Passed by the last legislature and submitted by referendum petition.

Amendment thirteen—Provides for woman suffrage, giving women the same right as men in all elections in the state.

Amendment fourteen—Authorizes the legislature at its option, to issue bonds to $50,000,000 for road building.

Amendment fifteen—Authorizes the issuing of bonds in road districts, upon petition of taxpayers, for the improvement of roads.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The Boys' Glee club held its first practice Monday afternoon about twenty-five boys having decided to become members. The Girls' Glee club practiced Wednesday afternoon for the first time.

During assembly period Tuesday afternoon the Rev. Gilbert S. Cox made an interesting talk. He compared education to an open door set before you, which, if you refuse to accept, will close before you to not open again.

The Dodgers, the basket ball team headed by Berney Harris, was the only team to suffer to any extent because of failures in studies for the first six weeks. It lost two men.

The advanced senior class will entertain the beginning seniors with a Hallowe'en party at the high school building tonight.

The boys of the senior class have organized a quartet and are now under the instruction of Prof. H. B. Schuler. The quartet is composed of Harold Staples, Jesse Strader, Verne Pickens and Don Roberts, with Ernest Moore pianist.

TO THE VOTERS OF MISSOURI.

Chairman McClung of the State Committee Issues an Address.

You, as a Democrat, are going to vote next Tuesday.

Your vote—with the votes of your neighbors in your county, and the vote of your fellow Democrats in other counties, will determine how the public business of your county and the state shall be carried on for the next two years.

It goes further—the question of endorsing President Wilson and enabling him to continue the great work laid out by the Democratic party at Baltimore and carried forward since by aid of a Democratic congress—it is up to you.

You only can elect congressmen and a senator from this state in harmony with the administration and guarantee the continuance of those policies which have given us legislation in the interest of the whole people, and kept us out of war with Mexico and at peace with the European nations now engaged in the most stupendous war of all time in which the toll of human life is beyond human imagination and the destruction of property so great a whole century will not see it replaced, while we pursue our daily occupation secure in life and property.

I appeal to you, therefore, to vote for Senator William J. Stone for the senate and the Democratic congressman in your district.

I also appeal to you to vote for Judge James T. Blair for supreme judge, Howard A. Gass for state superintendent of schools and all the Democratic candidates on your county ticket.

And see that your neighbor votes.

Chairman Democratic State Committee.

BELIEVE LAW A GOOD ONE

"Dry" Workers Declare Voters Should Uphold County Unit Law.

The county unit law, which is to be voted on November 3, is far superior, say the "dry" workers, to the present local option law, though its difference is only slight. The present law compels all towns of above 2,500 population to vote independently of the county in which they are located, while the proposed county unit law removes this particular requirement so that under the new law, in case that shall carry, there will no longer be "wet" cities in otherwise "dry" counties.

The law was secured in response to a demand made by the rural counties of the state. For six years they sought after it. Two years ago the state legislature enacted the law by a vote of 90 to 45 in the lower house and by 20 to 12 in the senate. Immediately after it was signed by the governor the saloon men of the state secured petitions under the referendum to suspend the operation of the law until it could be voted on by the people, as it will be at the general election next month.

The county unit local option law to be voted on next month raises the question whether the action of the legislature in passing said law shall be sustained by the people. A "yes" vote will be a vote to sustain the legislature. A "no" vote will be a vote to nullify the act of the legislature.

The proposed local option law does not in itself close a saloon but puts up to the people of an entire county the privilege to say what they would like in regard to the saloon. It permits the majority in a county to decide the question.

It pertains pre-eminently to the rural counties of the state and virtually has no application to the three big cities. It was passed in response to the appeal of the rural voters.

The county unit proposition will be the tenth proposition on the official constitutional ballot, which will be a great blanket sheet of six columns and will contain fifteen propositions. The county unit will occupy the entire fourth column excepting an inch. Every "dry" voter, therefore, should scratch the "no" in the fourth column.

Will Make Money Easy.

One of the chief reasons why it is urgent that the reserve banks be organized as speedily as possible is seen in the figures given out by the comptroller of the currency.

There is now held as a reserve under the present law $464,919,076 more than will be required under the new law. As the banks are actually holding somewhat in excess of the legal reserve, this means that when the banks open for business under the new system, $580,000,000 now held as reserve will be available for loans, without taking out a single dollar of extra circulation. The banks will be able to take from their vaults and put into commercial use half a billion dollars, and still be fully protected by reserves.

The effect of adding so large a sum to the loaning funds of the banks must be extremely stimulating to business, making loans easier, reducing interest rates and taking off much of the strain that has existed since the beginning of the war.

In view of this fact, and of the urgent need of all lines of business and industry for liberal credit, the prevention of further delay by Secretary McAdoo, by arbitrarily fixing November 16 as the date of opening of the reserve banks, was a move for the promotion of the general welfare and relief of the financial strain.—St. Louis Star.

ALLIES AND GIANTS LOSE.

Quintet Gets Out of Cellar by Defeating Leaders First Time.

The Allies gained undisputed away over the cellar position yesterday afternoon when the Minks defeated them by a 24 to 19 count and the Quintet, for the first time since the beginning of the league, climbed out of last place when, by a 19 to 16 score, they defeated the Giants, who had been leading the percentage column.

Both games were well played and closely contested, although but a small audience was present. With but six more games to be played, it seems that the real contest for the pennant will be between the Giants and the Minks, although the way the teams are going now the indications are that the Quintet will also be in at the finish.

The next games will be played Monday afternoon, when the Giants meet the Minks and the Quintet plays the Allies.

Summary of the games:

Quintet—Field goals, Quinn 3, Scott 3, Sawyers 2; free throws, Quinn 1, Brittain 2.

Giants—field goals, Vandersloot 1, Ham 3; free throws, Vandersloot 6. Two points were awarded.

Minks—Field goals, Ford 3, Leech 4, Powell 2, Woodward 1; free throws, Ford 2, Leech 2.

Allies—Field goals, Seymour 2, Scarlett 3, Wells 4; free throws, Gooden 1.

Standing of the teams:

Teams.	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Giants	7	2	.700
Minks	6	4	.600
Quintet	4	6	.400
Allies	3	7	.300

REPUBLICANS HAVE RALLY

Three G. O. P. Orators Close County Campaign Here Today.

The Republicans of Nodaway county closed their campaign here this afternoon with a "whirlwind" political rally in the circuit court room of the court house, beginning at 2 o'clock. It was originally intended to begin the speaking an hour earlier, but being unable to get a large enough audience it was delayed, while the band played a few more stirring national airs.

The speakers were T. J. Akins, candidate for United States senator from Missouri; Merrill E. Otis, candidate for congress, and Judge O. J. Page of Springfield, Ill., candidate for United States senator from Illinois. On their arrival this morning they were met by a reception committee at the Burlington station, then driven in motor cars about the city. They later headed a parade of about twenty-five automobiles filled with Republicans, which traversed the business section.

While the audience which the trio of Republican speakers addressed this afternoon was not near so large as the party leaders anticipated, they sat through much of it, apparently interested. The fact that Saturday always draws large crowds for miles around, especially on such a fine day as today, caused the Republican leaders to expect a large audience.

While the crowd was large on the street, as is usual on the closing day of each week, it was impossible to get many of them to sit through the Republican political speeches. The party leaders, however, engaged a band of several pieces to play at the court house band stand this morning, and this afternoon up to the time of the rally. This helped some in drawing a crowd.

The Republican rally this afternoon closes the political campaigns in Nodaway county. The Progressives rested Thursday, the Democrats yesterday.

A teachers' reading circle of Polk township was organized at the court house this afternoon, and the first meeting held with W. M. Oakerson, county school superintendent, in charge. Nearly every other township in Nodaway county has a reading circle already formed. Ten teachers of the township are attending this afternoon's session.

Funeral services for Mary Morrissey, the 14-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Morrissey, who died yesterday afternoon and the body interred in St. Patrick's cemetery.

Miss Grace May Shupe left this morning for Omaha, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. E. E. Brumbaugh. From there she will go to Eagle, Neb., to visit until after the first of the year.

EXODUS OF IRISHMEN ON

Four Hundred Reach New York on Steamer Cedric.

New York, Oct. 31.—Four hundred Irishmen from sixteen to twenty-five years of age came over from Queens town in a body on the steamer Cedric, which reached here. They declined to say if they had come to America rather than enlist in the British army, but did say they came here to look for work.

It was reported among the other passengers that they had left Ireland because an Irish labor leader had convinced them that the British government was soon to enforce conscription in Ireland.

According to recent mail advices from Dublin, the emigration of Irishmen of military service age has been heavier this fall than in many years and was giving the authorities some uneasiness.

Mrs. Elizabeth French acted as a fortune teller, and a ghost story reading was given by Miss Glen Hotchkiss. A true autumn luncheon closed the evening. The various committee members in charge of the evening were Miss Ora King, Miss Edna Wilson, Miss Anice Ingerson, Miss Loma Bowers, Miss Edna O'Neal, Miss Laura Curfman, Miss Lucile Afry, Miss Florence Anderon, Miss Glen Hotchkiss, Clinton White, Emmett Scott and Ernest Moore.

Silver Wedding Anniversaries.

At one of the most radiant society affairs of the season, Mr. and Mrs. William Calvin Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dilling Bellows celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversaries last night by entertaining over two hundred of their friends at the Elks club. In the ball room, where the affair was held, a color combination of the Halloween shades, black and yellow, was carried out by utilizing all manner of Halloween favors for decorations. The walls were paneled with bands of yellow crepe paper, with black witch figures in black. Over the windows and at intervals along the walls were placed huge yellow pumpkins, surmounted by black cats. The orchestra loft was draped with festoons of the chosen colors, and the lights were shaded in similar tones. Designs symbolic of the night were used in every detail of the decorations, which were placed under the supervision of Harry D. Snyder.

While the guests were gathering and during the interludes in the program, Maulding's stringed orchestra presented a musical program. Mr. and Mrs. Bellows and Mr. and Mrs. Pierce received their guests at the entrance of the ball room, and they were then seated around small tables while a program was given. The opening numbers were two groups of songs, "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water," Cadman; "The Banjo Song," Homer, and "Some Where a Voice is Calling," Tate; and "Mammy," Ware, sung by Harry Bunnell Schuler. The feature of the entertainment, a one-act operetta, "Beans and Buttons," was given by Miss Besse Scott, Miss Nellie Wray, Mr. Schuler and Orlo Quinn. The program was given from a stage placed at the east end of the ball room, the setting carrying out the main decorative idea. The operetta was given with a professional assurance and was received with delight by the guests. The next number, which directly preceded the supper, was a quartet composed of Misses Scott and Wray, and Messrs. Schuler and Quinn, singing "Now to the Banquet We Press," by Sullivan. The cabaret songs were "The High Cost of Loving" and "When It's Night Time Down in Burgundy," featuring Miss Scott, with a quartet accompaniment. In the serving of the menu, the dominating note of the colors and designs of the affair were used. The tables were centered with fanciful cartons filled with candles, and the ices were in the form of small yellow pumpkins. The supper was served by Reuillard, caterer. The surprise of the evening came at the conclusion of the dining, when the occasion of the gathering was made known in a specially arranged song, "Twenty-Five Years Today," sung by Mr. Schuler. The Bellows anniversary falls on October 9, and the Pierce anniversary on October 17, and they selected this occasion to observe the event of their silver wedding anniversaries, and the fact was kept secret from the guests until the last moment. Dancing finished the evening, a number of guests remaining for an informal hop, which ended with the dancing of the Virginia reel, led by Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. Bellows. The assisting friends were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Signs, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Frank, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Wilfley, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Romasser, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Bellows, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Roseberry, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bellows, Mrs. George P. Bellows, Misses Ruth Montgomery, Hattie Pierce, Jennie Garrett, Marjorie and Geneva Wilfley, Lenore and Rose Schumacher, Nora Ritze, Helen Ford, Dorothy Pierce, Besse Porter, Della and Kattie Grems, Brownie Toel, Elise Jackson, Clara Sturm, May Corwin, LaRue Kemp, Laura Barmann, Bettie Turner, Mabel Curnutt and Mildred Bellows, George Robb Ellison, Dale Bellows, Will Phares, Fred Bellows and Master Charles Bellows, Jr. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. C. M. Taylor of Denver, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shoemaker, Jr., of Oklahoma City, Okla.; Calvin Howe of Duluth, a guest of the Pierce family; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Linville of Skidmore, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mutz, living west of the city, and T. C. Middleton of Burlington Junction.

NO ALUM IN ROYAL BAKING POWDER

The Spirit of Service.

The congress which adjourned Saturday had been in continuous session from April 7, 1913, to October 24, 1914—more than eighteen months. The work accomplished by the Democratic majority in that time is remarkable alike for quality and quantity—tariff revision, banking and currency laws, Panama reform, Alaskan opening, supplementary trust legislation—no such splendid record has been made by any other legislative body for a generation.

The spirit which animated the Democratic party during this long session is a spirit of public service. The mere tardiness of adjournment is enough to prove that Congress usually quits early in campaign year, that members seeking re-election may get home to explain their votes, pacify their constituents, "fix their fences." This congress disdained explanations, and stayed on the job till nine days before the election. Members left their fate in the hands of their friends—or enemies—and attended to their work.

Even those of the majority who were mistaken in their notions of the way to serve the public—some of the cotton states senators and representatives, for example—were still moved by the will to serve, and eager to substitute deeds for the usual promises of campaign year.

A party animated by such a spirit is a good one to return to power at a time like the present.—Chicago Journal.

For County Judge.

Here is what the Hopkins Journal has to say about John Campbell:

John Campbell is a home man, well qualified for the position of county judge from the North district, and while he is a Democrat, many of his Republican friends will vote for him.

He is an ideal man in looking after bridges and culverts and has always been a staunch advocate of good roads. He has served on the township board of Independence township to the satisfaction of the people and would do equally well as a member of the county court. It is to the interest of this vicinity to have a man from among us in the court, and no one will make a mistake in voting for John Campbell, friend and neighbor.

RESISTANCE OF GERMANS STUBBORN

Severe Fighting All Along Line.

ALLIES GAINING GROUND

Fierce Counter Attacks Are Made by Kaiser's Forces.

BRITISH WIN WITH BAYONET.

Foil German Attempt to Pierce
Line in North.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

The far east has taken, for the moment at least, the center of the stage in the war drama that is being enacted in Europe, Asia and Africa and on the high seas. With a lessening in the hostilities in northern Belgium and France, and with the situation caused by Turkey's use of its warships against ostensibly friendly nations not yet clear enough to reveal what its outcome will be, comes the announcement that the Japanese and British have begun a general attack on Germany's fortified base at Tsingtau.

The shelling of Tsingtau began at dawn and at last accounts was proceeding vigorously. Tsingtau has been invested by land and sea virtually since the commencement of hostilities in Europe.

Severe fighting continues in Belgium, but there is no mention by any of the war chancelleries of a resumption of the sanguinary encounters of the early week. The British war office says the British are steadily gaining ground on the western wing but that the German resistance is stubborn.

Of the operations along the line in northern France, the French report a recrudescence of the activity near Rheims, along the heights of the Meuse and to the south of Fresnes on the Woevre.

Germany made claim to successful attacks in the region of Nieuport and Ypres, and to the occupation of allied territory in the Argonne forest. Of the situation in the east, Berlin offered no report.

Petrograd, on the other hand, claimed continued successes on the East Prussian frontier and beyond the Vistula.

A news agency dispatch gives a report from Constantinople that a naval battle between the Turks and the Russians is in progress off Odessa.

London, Oct. 31.—The following was issued by the official press bureau: "Severe fighting continues with little intermission along the allies' line especially towards the north. The German resistance is stubborn, and fierce counter attacks are made by them frequently.

"Nevertheless, the British are steadily gaining ground. In a counter attack one brigade delivered a brilliant charge, accounting for many of the enemy, whose losses throughout the fighting are heavy."

An official statement issued by the German army general headquarters: "Our attacks to the south of Nieuport and to the east of Ypres are being successfully continued. Eight machine guns and 200 British soldiers have been captured.

"In the Argonne forest our troops have occupied several blockhouses and points of support.

"To the northwest of Verdun the French attacked without success. In the other parts of the western war theater and in the eastern arena the situation is unchanged."

Porte May Blame Germans on Ships

London, Oct. 31.—The view has been expressed in official circles that the Turkish government may try to disassociate itself from the action of its warships in the Black sea in bombarding Russian ports, including Odessa. It is suggested that the porte when it hears the comment of the allied governments, may throw the onus for this course on the shoulders of the German commanders of its warships and declare they acted without orders. The report to this, it is said in London, will be a demand that the German officers and crews now in the Turkish navy be sent home within twenty-four hours.

British Casualty List.

London, Oct. 31.—An additional casualty list was issued by the war office. It is dated Oct. 25 and gives the names of twenty-four officers killed and fifty wounded.

LARGE EXPORTS OF FOODSTUFFS

Warring Nations Make Demands on Mills and Packing Houses.

Washington, Oct. 31.—War's demand on American granaries, mills and packing houses, as shown in an analysis by the department of commerce, resulted in record exports of breadstuffs, meats and other food supplies during September. Many trade currents, broken by the European upheaval, have shifted to the United States, France demanding immense quantities of fresh beef; South America and Europe buying large amounts of flour, while nearly all the markets formerly supplied from other sources are importing millions of pounds of American sugar.

The value of foodstuffs sold abroad last month was $68,490,889, nearly double that of September a year ago, when the total was $38,786,624.

The war demand for wheat brought exports for the three months ending with September to the highest point ever reached in any corresponding period. Total exports, including flour in terms of wheat, in the three months aggregated 89,250,000 bushels, compared with 59,000,000 bushels in that period a year ago.

Exports of fresh beef in September amounted to 7,000,000 pounds, eleven times that sent abroad in September, 1913.

BURIED UNDER SLAIN MEN

Wounded British Soldier Has Grim
Experience of Balzac's Colonel.

Paris, Oct. 31.—A wounded British soldier tells a story of an experience which recalls the grim experience of Balzac's Colonel Chabert and which also illustrates the severity of the fighting.

This soldier said he remembered the start of a fierce fight in the trenches. Then his mind became a blank for many hours. When he recovered his senses it was morning and he had an awful feeling of suffocation. When he tried to move he realized that he was in a trench buried beneath a pile of German and British dead.

The enemy had retired temporarily and eventually the soldier was able to crawl to the next line of trenches, which were occupied by his comrades.

Told to Whip Foes, Not to Count Them

Petrograd, Oct. 31.—In the recent fighting near Przemyśl two generals reported to their commander, the Bulgarian General Radko Dimitrieff, who is leading the Russian army investing Przemyśl, that they were unable to hold out owing to the overwhelming numbers of the enemy. General Dimitrieff replied: "Don't count the enemy. Beat them."

Anti-Christian War Talk at Damascus.

London, Oct. 31.—There have been great manifestations at Damascus, in Asiatic Turkey, in favor of a war against Christians and especially against Great Britain, according to a dispatch from Athens. The massing of Bedouins along the Egyptian frontier, the dispatch adds, is being continued.

Denmark Needs Cotton.

Copenhagen, Oct. 31.—Cotton is needed badly in this country and manufacturers are anxious to learn whether American shippers are now willing to risk sending cotton here. The king signed an act providing that cotton goods shipped into Denmark shall be used by Denmark alone.

Colorado Mines Not to Be Closed.

Washington, Oct. 31.—"It is not true that the president has in contemplation any plan for the closing of the mines in Colorado," reports that he might decide to close the mines caused the issuance of the foregoing statement at the White House.

Hands "Moosers" Hot One.

The Progressive county candidates, better known as the "Democratic Aid Society," appeared at the opera house in Hopkins last Tuesday night, with just an even dozen to hear them, and among the dozen was not one of the Progressive faith. There was not a vote cast for the Bull Moosers at the recent primary in Hopkins township and it is predicted that none will be cast for them next Tuesday. If there is, Asylum No. 2 at St. Joseph should arrange to care for more patients.—Hopkins Journal.
